How this ministry was successful in “equipping the local church” and/or “providing a connection for ministry”?

The work of the Connectional Ministry Leadership Team (CMLT) proceeded successfully in spite of financial restrictions and the possibilities of a new Conference. The chairs of the teams that make up the CMLT have had a particularly challenging year and have responded with diligence and perseverance. The Peace and Justice Team, the Mission and Outreach Ministry Team, the Outdoor Ministry Team, the Church Development Team, and the Leadership Development Team have all performed admirably. The primary purpose of the CMLT and its Resource Teams is to provide services in such a way that local churches are encouraged and strengthened in their ministry. To learn how this has been done during the year of 2007, please read the reports from each of the teams that follow.

It is appropriate and desirable to thank the CMLT staff of Mark Gough, Jack Scott, Gina Riendeau, Nick Yarde, and Ed Fenstermacher for their hard work and guidance.
